STOLEN PROPERTY RECOVERED

A cache of stolen goods has been discovered hidden in a shack constructed in the woods back of the Shining Tides. A hunter noticed the well hidden structure and notified the Mattapoisett Police Department. The loot consists of two 8-foot prams, 6 pairs of oars, one outboard motor, two anchors and oarlocks, and approximately $300. worth of school department property stolen from the Old Rochester Regional High School.

The shack was padlocked shut and the prams stored on supports nailed across small trees and they were covered with canvas.

The prams and other loot are awaiting identification and claim. Apply at the Mattapoisett Police Station. Police have the matter under investigation.

TOWN HALL NEWS

Mattapoisett Selectmen voted to join the Massachusetts League of Cities and Towns in 1966. A representative of the League will meet with them to discuss the activities which include research, publicity center, survey and consultant teams, and as a clearing house for information.

The Planning Board and Selectmen will meet with the Special Committee on Zoning on Thursday, November 11th, at 7:30 P.M. at the Town Hall to hear a progress report.

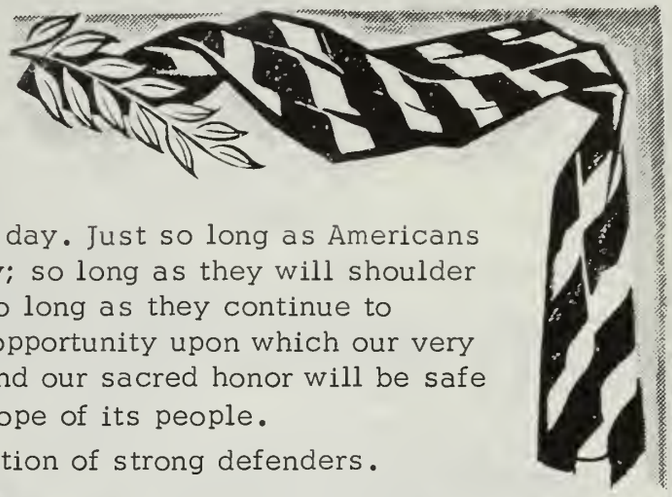
VETERANS DAY



We salute the veterans of our country on their day. Just so long as Americans continue to defend the privileges of open society; so long as they will shoulder the responsibilities of defending their liberty, so long as they continue to honor the principles of truth, justice and equal opportunity upon which our very foundations are laid - Our country, our people and our sacred honor will be safe and continue to influence the world and be the hope of its people.

Justice is a mighty force only under the protection of strong defenders.

"DOWN TO THE SEA IN SHIPS" TO BE SHOWN AT REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL

The original silent film version of "Down to the Sea in Ships", that launched Clara Bow's career in films and includes residents of Mattapoisett in its cast of "extras", will be shown Friday evening, November 19th, at 8 P.M. at the Old Rochester Regional High School auditorium.

Few events in Mattapoisett's history have matched the excitement in town that day in 1922 when cameras rolled on Cannon Street. The director had his hands full holding back the crowd that gathered to watch their fellow townsmen act.

The Bark Wanderer was to have been used to film the actual whaling voyage to the Carribbean Sea, but since it was unavailable at the time to make the voyage, the Charles W. Morgan was used instead.

This special showing is being presented by the Mattapoisett Historical Society for which donations of $1.00 for adults and .50¢ for children will be requested for the Carriage Shed building fund._

Donald N. Gavin, principal of the Old Rochester Regional High School, announces that Open House will be held on Tuesday, November 16, 1965, between the hours of 7:00 and 9:00 P.M. National Education Week is set for November 7-13. However, to avoid conflicts with the elementary schools, Open House at Old Rochester has been scheduled for the week following National Education Week.

Teachers will remain in designated areas and parents may visit any teacher. Student members of the Future Teachers of America Association, will serve as ushers throughout the evening. Mrs. Stevens, the dietitian, assisted by members of the Future Homemakers Club, will serve refreshments in the high school cafeteria.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS MEETING

The Old Rochester Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America was host to the Bourne Chapter on October 27. Mrs. Barry Wade, of Kingston, Jamaica, was the guest speaker. Her topic was the customs and school systems of Jamaica as compared to others. She showed slides of the islands adjacent to Jamaica. Mrs. Wade and her husband, who is a scientist, are living at Woods Hole, where Mr. Wade has been assigned for a period of two years.

VETERANS' DAY

This day, set aside to honor our country's defenders, should serve as a reminder to our citizens that freedom is not free. Every generation is called upon to shoulder their obligation to preserve our way of life by doing battle with those who would destroy it. Unfortunately, these are the facts of life. Peace is a relative thing. It is relatively peaceful when the forces of freedom are strong enough, and willing enough, to oppose the forces of aggressive nations bound on a course of conquest.

The draft card burners of today are in the same moronic category as the goldfish eaters of 20 years ago. The infant mind has been captured by an opportunity to display itself in a public place with an opportunity to shock and disgust a large group of beholders. This form of exhibitionism is usually outgrown. At any rate, it is a minority, moronic fringe which is always given far more publicity than it merits.

Most young Americans quietly and willingly take up the task of preserving their homes. Their nation proudly recognizes their dedication and their sacrifices. It takes maturity to reason that the country that refuses to uphold its rights will not long have any. To maintain a relative peace is far more desirable than the peace of surrender.

Thanks to our mature youth our nation will do its share in the preservation of the safety of our country and of justice in the world. Honor must come first. The veterans of the United States know this well.

MEDIUS ALTUS FELLOWSHIP

The Mid-High Fellowship of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church has started off its season with a bang. At the first meeting on October 3rd the following officers were elected: Douglas Tuxworth, president; Jeffrey Chase, vice-president; Allen Vaughan, treasurer; and Susan Reynard, secretary.

At another meeting the group adopted a new name of Medius Altus which is Mid High in Latin. A motto, "Pro Bono Ceteroeum", meaning "For the Good of Others", was also adopted. A Coat of Arms was designed in the shape of a shield with a cross on which is written the name and motto. The Coat of Arms is being made up by the president and will be hung in the Fellowship Room. A newly revised set of by-laws was voted.

Among the other programs enjoyed for October were an illustrated lecture by Mr. George Bowditch on whaling, a film, "What Price Freedom?" and a discussion with the pastor, Frederick Reynard, on the Fellowship's

TOYS FOR TOBEY

A new service project has been started by Medius Altus Fellowship of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church. The project entitled "Toys for Tobey" which includes replacing, repairing and replenishing the ever diminishing supply of toys for the children's ward, has been designed to be carried on by Medius Altus as a year to year project. The director of Public Relations of Tobey Hospital has hopes that this service can eventually be extended to include the children's section of the out-patient department.

To begin the project a box will be placed in the Church office for donations of new or used toys in good condition suitable for hospital use. Books and safe, quiet toys are suggested. The group will later sort out and repair these toys with careful consideration, and any not useable for Tobey will be sent to one of the missions in New Bedford for Christmas. Later during the year the group will work on making toys. The box will remain in the church office long enough to give everyone a chance to remember the project.

Shell Heating Oil can save you money in two important ways

New Shell Heating Oil has been refined by a special Shell patented Hydro-desulphurization process. Billions of sulphur and nitrogen atoms are removed from the oil. The results are clear: this new oil is bright and clean - a very stable heating oil for your burner. This super cleanliness and stability helps save you money.

New Shell Heating Oil also has a special additive that helps guard burner openings against heat robbing deposits. The combination of a properly adjusted burner and Shell Heating Oil helps reduce both fuel bills and service calls. New Shell Heating Oil is available now. Call us today for complete facts.

Years Ago

By C. M.

126 Years Ago -- 1839

During the spring of 1839 the quarrel about where to hold the town meetings flared up again, and for the first time there appears in the official records a suggestion that the town be divided. At a meeting the previous year a special committee, had presented a thoughtful analysis of the situation and had made a constructive proposal.

This report pointed out, among other things,

1) that Rochester "in territorial extent is among the largest towns in the Commonwealth;"

2) that within this township two flourishing maritime villages have sprung up;

3) that Mattapoisett was the larger of the two, with a population of over 1200, "a large proportion of whom find profitable occupation in the shipyards, workshops, and other incidental employments of that enterprising village;"

4) that it was six miles from Mattapoisett to the Town Hall in Rochester Center;

5) that since none of the other proposals that had been made had met with general favor;

6) the committee "respectfully recommends that measures for a division of the town be adopted."

The committee went on to say that it made such a recommendation with "difficulty and regret," but the realities of the situation demanded nothing less. "A state of things that shall annually or oftener bring together the citizens, and array them against each other under local banners, with keenly excited feelings where mutual confidence and respect are made to give place to jealousy, distrust, crimination and reproach, is more to be deplored, while it endures, than separation..."

So in the warrant for the Town Meeting for March 1839, along with an article asking that all town meetings be held in Rochester Center and one demanding that one-third of the meetings be held in Mattapoisett, Article 16 stated:

"To see if the town will petition the legislature of this session to divide said town of Rochester by setting off Mattapoisett and including or excluding that part known as Sippican, as the town may think proper..."

But when the meeting day rolled around, the Mattapoisett citizens stayed home and instead sent up a remonstrance with 250 signatures that the warrant calling the meeting was illegal, and therefore this meeting "is illegal, anti-republican, unjust, and oppressive."

So the merry-go-round started up again, the town meetings being held first in Rochester and then in Mattapoisett in the Congregational Meeting House (Grange Hall) then back in Rochester again, etc. This went on all through 1840 while tempers flared more hotly until Dr. Robbins wrote the understatement of the times: "There seems to be a growing alienation between this and the Town quarter of the town."

Meanwhile the life of the village followed its usual way, as glimpses from Dr. Robbins' diary show:

Aug. 17. Mr. James Hammond has had a loaded wagon go over him. I hope he will recover.

SAFER AND BETTER HARBORS

Southeastern Massachusetts' economy has been historically linked with the sea and the coastline. This is still true today with the increasing importance of fishing, boating and tourism. I'm glad to report, therefore, that $1,377,000 of this year's Rivers and Harbors appropriation is earmarked for the 12th Congressional District. Rep. Hastings Keith

SATISFIED OR SAD

What is it going to be for our Cadette Group of Girl Scouts?

We have a small group of girls at Old Rochester Regional High School who are desperately looking for a person willing to work along with them in their endeavor to achieve certain goals in girl scouting.

Planned programs are available for anyone interested in assisting these girls.

If there is any one person or possibly two or three people who would like to work with this group, please contact Mrs. William Milne, 758-2291, or Mrs. Granville Trow, 758-2127.

It is not necessary that you have a girl in this group, nor that you have had prior girl scouting. Just an interest in young people will make it possible for you guide these girls.
